

SIOM makes every effort to expand and uphold its values in all our programmes and activities. Culture of SIOM comprises of ethical values and practices by its staff and students, their belief systems and social behavior adhering to diversity with synergy. Core values of SIOM help building trust and respect amongst all stakeholders.

- Student centric activities: SIOM thrives emphasis not only on educating students, but also on inspiring them to become noble professionals, innovators, leaders, thus contributing to society building.
- Faculty and Staff supporting environment: The teaching and non teaching staff at SIOM gets appropriate support to strengthen their academic career, working efficiency and effectiveness.
- Promote Leadership and Ethical Decision-Making: SIOM always promotes growth of the employees and provides platform to showcase their leadership qualities by organizing ample of institute level, society level and even state level events in the form of seminars, conferences and workshops.
- Innovation: Through Srujan Cell SIOM promotes its students and teaching fraternity to showcase their innovative skills and come up with new product and/or process designs as a outcome of research.
- Resource Management: SIOM has state of the art infrastructure with a apt no. of quality physical resources in the premise. Every faculty member, students and non teaching staff follow the protocol lined up for proper utilization of resources responsibly.
- Alumni treasure: SIOM has a rich number of alumni positioned at pinnacle of various types of industries who have successfully created a great legacy in the institute. We engage our alumni in planning for the future of our current students and rely upon our alumni for their involvement and philanthropic support in the execution of various plans.

Dr. Chandrani Singh

Director MCA