Although academics are important, it doesn't hurt once in a while to go out and have fun and explore new things and learn outside the classroom. These cultural events provided opportunities to do exactly the same. A big thank you to all the faculties, student coordinators and volunteers who cooperated and helped in realizing the hidden talents.

Description of activity in brief:

Sinhgad Technical Education Society (STES) is organizing a two-day national level extravaganza Sinhgad Karandak "Spectrum 2020" at its Vadgaon – Ambegaon Campus, Pune on 7th and 8th of February 2020. The theme for this year's Spectrum was Graffiti.

'Spectrum' is an extravaganza of Management Events. The events aim to have participants not only from the post graduate management institutes but also from the graduate colleges across the country. Events such as AdZilla, Brilliant Brigade, Apprentice, Blitzkrieg, Shark Tank, and 20 other management events are part of Spectrum. Spectrum would serve as a platform to showcase talent and give the students an opportunity to prove their mettle. A zealous avenue, where classic creativity, innovative intellect and a plethora of skill sets would be challenged to make the students victorious. Spectrum provides the students a chance to win Cash prizes over Rs. 1.5 lacs. With over 4,000 students expected at the event, it would be just mesmerizing.

Dr. Daniel Penkar
Director, SIOM

Inauguration of Spectrum 2016 will have done at the hands of Mr. Samir Kampani, Founder & CEO, Applied Engineering Services on 7th February at 9:30 am in Sinhgad Institute of Management. Mr. G. K. Shahani, Trustee, STES was the guest of honour. The session started with the lighting of the lamp, followed by the Welcome address by Dr. Daneil Penkar, Director, SIOM. Mr. Samir Kampani, then took over the session and spoke about his experience of participating in extracurricular activities and how these helped in shaping his personality. Later, Mr. G. K. Shahani encouraged students to actively participate in these activities and learn from this experience. He also spoke about the values that these competitions inculcate among the students. He then declared the event open, and the participants dispersed to their respective event locations.
