Activity Title	: Campus to Corporate Program 2022-2024
Speaker	: Mrs. Ankita Nagarkar (HR Executive at Amazon, MBA HR, Operations)
Title	: Patent and Trademark
Anchor	: Shweta Kasar (MBA II)
Report Writer	: Shivani Ingale (MBA II)
Date	: 25/11/2022
Day	: Friday
Time	: 11:00 AM to 02:00 PM
Venue	: Conference Hall (Second Floor)

As a part of 'Campus to Corporate' hosted on 22nd November 2022 by Sinhgad Institute Of Management Vadgaon, Pune a Session on 'Patent and Trademark' by Mrs. Ankita Nagarkar was arranged on 25th of November, 2022.

The Session started by welcoming the guest Mrs. Ankita Nagarkar. Mrs. Shweta Kasar (MBA II) took the honour of welcoming and introducing the guest who is HR executive at Amazon. She also has her MBA in Operations and HR, received 72 Awards and also had honour of delivering lecture at IIM Ahmadabad. It took great honour to have a Guest who has 11 Patents registered on her name.

Dr. Daniel Penkar (Director MBA, SIOM) felicitated the guest and appreciated the work she has done. He also mentioned about how eager he was about the book 'Shodh Mazya Ankitacha' which our guest gifted to him, written by her mother.

The guest started her session by introducing her and then taking us to her inspiring journey in the world of patent and Trademarks. She mentioned how at the age of 16 she faced a problem with stapler pins getting over without ever noticing and then how she had to run here and there to get the new set. Which lead her to her very first patent for which she received an award at the hands of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam Azad on 11/11/2011. Truly and inspiration it was for everyone listening her. Sharing some of the videos about her innovation captured by Lokmat, she also stated that you need not have to be scientist to file a patent. She then covered the benefits the patent provides starting from you can start your own business or sell the patent, she also quoted some real world example of these benefits she witnessed.

She described the Six major steps in Patent filing process from Title to Summary, the approach you should follow. Moving forward our guest her experience with her first patent, speaking about how nervous she was thinking about her innovation being small and then shared her incident with Dr. Kalam sir, quoting 'No innovation is big or small, but if any innovation comes with a change'. Which changed her entire perspective and ours too. It was really inspiring to listen to her. The way of delivering the topic was so effective that everyone present were truly engaged in the session.

The session was concluded by interactive question and answers. Mrs. Shweta Kasar proposed the vote of thanks on behalf of Sinhgad Institute of Management, Vadgaon, Pune and concluded the session.

The speaker started the session with some general ideas and introduction about Macroeconomic policies i.e Fiscal and Monetary policies and what were its effects during and after COVID-19 impact including recent events such as Ukraine war. Later she talked about how cash payments were more used by federal Government of Australia, which was designed to stimulate consumer spending and how some cash payments were used to pay debts during the deficit budget in 2008-2009. Talking about growth rate of 3.5% during covid-19, she said "If your neighbours do well, you will do well" and that's how we overcame covid-19. She further talks about Australian Government's response to covid-19 and the household support, temporary reduction in rates/taxes provided. Dr. Anita madam discussed about some important important points and insights about Australia and India's GDP growth rates, unemployment, inflation and their effects.

Dr. Anita madam gave significant knowledge about macro-economic policies – fiscal policies, their types, explaining Expansionary and Contractionary fiscal policies, what will happen if there were no such policies and its effects in long run as well as short run. With some points she further discussed Government purchase multiplier, Problems associated with fiscal policies effectiveness, Government spending reduce private spending.

She also briefed about how deficits, surpluses and federal government debts affect GDP with the help of some questions-

- Should the central budget always be balanced?
- Is government debt & deficit a problem?
- Can debt & deficits be a burden?

She also briefed about how monetary policies were monitored by Australia's Reserve Bank and RBA's roles and functions.

At the end of the session, she shared few questions on monetary policies-

- How monetary policy affects prices, outputs and employments?
- How the RBA manages Financial Liquidity and interest rates?

Overall, the session was proven to be very inspiring and informative for students. Then there was a question-and-answer session, where she invited questions and responded to them in a lively and humorous manner. The session ended with a vote of thanks.

2. Introduction

This session was conducted by Dr. Daniel Penkar Sir. The session was about mentee and mentor relation. Mentoring or mentorship is when an individual with perspective and experience instructs and guides another person with less experience. The mentoring relationship helps the mentee navigate the obstacles and challenges they are likely to face in education, jobs, and personal life. With their own experience in hand, the mentor can help to prepare mentee, leading them to see success and achievement with their career goals. Establishing relationship of trust between the mentor and mentee developing long- lasting personal and informal relationship, sharing own relevant experiences, listening to the person who is more concerns about your career and the problems which you are going to face in future and how to tackle. The session also gives you a brief knowledge of how the mentor should fulfill his/her responsibility.

Being mentor of someone in professional and formal life is very important and valuable task. By being someone mentor we can improve their life as well as we can improve ourself and get knowledge from every aspect of life. Mentee completely rely on his/her mentor for taking decision which are going to affect his/her future. Mentee accept valuable guidance under his mentor. It is the responsibility of mentor that his/her students should get placed in reputed company qat a good profile. He should ensure that the students must get the knowledge relevant to his profession. Mentor should ensure the emotional stability of the mentee and resolve the problem the problem instantly instead of running from it.

The session also highlighted the importance of time management, emotional stability, competitiveness, developing contacts relevant to your profession and which are going to be beneficial in future. Being consistent in your work is very much important. Planning and implementing it is equally important.
