Activity Category	General	Activity Venue	Conference Hall
Participants	Students	Numbers of Participants	206
Organization Name	SIOM	Faculty Coordinator	Aanchal Sharma

A session on finance for non-finance was conducted for the students. The session aimed to bridge the knowledge gap and empower students with basic financial concepts and to make them well-versed with financial terminologies. The primary objective was to provide a solid foundation and enhance the financial literacy of participants, enabling them to navigate financial conversations and make informed decisions in both personal and professional spheres.

The session covered the following key points

Definition and Purpose of Accounting:

Explanation of what accounting is and its role in business.
Understanding the importance of financial information for decision-making.

Basic Accounting Equation:

The fundamental accounting equation: $Assets = Liabilities + Equity$.
How this equation represents the balance between a company's resources and claims against those resources.

Double-Entry Accounting:

Explanation of the double-entry system and its role in maintaining the accounting equation.
Debits and credits: how they affect different types of accounts.

Financial Statements:

Overview of the main financial statements: Income Statement and Balance Sheet
Understanding the purpose and components of each financial statement.

Recording Transactions:

Journal entries: the basic recording of transactions in a chronological order.
Posting to ledgers: transferring journal entries to the appropriate accounts.
