Academic Audit Summary for Academic Year 2018-19

To boost the knowledge and technical skills of teachers and students, IQAC stressed on the need for conduction of workshops, technical skills, conferences and seminars.

The college, with support from IQAC, encouraged teachers and students to actively take part in workshops, seminars, and conferences related to their fields. They also suggested enrolling in various online, MOOC, and NPTEL courses to keep up with the latest industry trends and continuously upgrade their knowledge and skills.

The Institutional Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) promotes research-based activities among students and faculty by recommending:

1. Publication of Conference Papers and Patent Registrations: Encourages publishing research findings in reputable conferences/journals and exploring patent filings for innovative ideas.
2. Engagement in Industry-based Projects: Suggests involvement in industry projects to enhance market align skills along with hands on experience in current technologies.
3. Internships in the research and development unit of Industries: Emphasizes internships for students to gain practical exposure, enhance critical thinking skills and work on segments of applied research.

IQAC stressed the importance of project-based learning (PBL) to establish a strong connection between the industry and academia and instil experiential learning. This approach effectively bridges the gap between theoretical knowledge and relevant application of knowledge.
